RUDOLF NUREYEV:

A Life in Dance

Internationally recognized as the world most celebrated ballet dancer of his time, Rudolf Nureyev demanded perfection—from the meticulous footwork and athleticism of his choreography to the delicate details of his costumes.

Immerse yourself in a dramatic installation of the original costumes and photographs highlighting the spellbinding theatricality of the original dance superstar.

Join us on a Virtual Tour to the Exhibit with a FAMSF docent presentation at the FHGC on Monday October 15 @ 1:00PM. Sumptuous afternoon tea to follow. FREE to all members.
