Corresponding Secretary – A Thinking of you card is to be sent to Ann Impett.

Clubhouse update:

1) Locks have been compromised and a discussion ensued as to what to do with the locks, etc. Kathe Farrell will follow up with Jamie Wong on how many keys are needed. Kathe will do a price analysis, when to install, etc.

2) FHA survey was sent to homeowners. Yen discussed some of the key elements of the survey. Yen mentioned that the members should respond to the survey which was sent online to members. The survey mentions increases on the rental fees for use of the clubhouse.

3) Kathe Farrell mentioned that it would be a good time to have FHGC members attend meeting to provide the association an opportunity to explain fee increase etc. Several garden club members agreed to go to the meeting on April 8th.

Nominating Committee Report – Louise Bacigalupi provided report of the Committee. The list of Nominees has not been posted yet, but is expected to be posted soon.

Rummage Sale report – Ingeborg McGlynn provided an excellent report on the rummage sale and how much fun the members had selling the items. There were beautiful original paintings, exquisite handcrafted jewelry, Mycra Pac Coats, scarves and also tools, hardware, photographic cameras & lenses for sale. The charity that was drawn this year to receive the donation from the rental of the tables was The SF Pocket Opera.

Upcoming Events – Our next event will be on Monday, April 15 – FAMSF Docent Presentation of Early Rubens, by Gretchen Turner. The event will be spearheaded by Nancy Butte, Kathe Farrell and Ingeborg McGlynn. Additionally, a celebration of one of our members will take place at this meeting. It is the 100 birthday of Maxine Dickson and she will be honored by the members at this meeting.
